

NEW CHARTER WILL BE PUT TO TEST OF VOTERS WEDNESDAY

Lengthy Statements Attack- ing and Defending the Pro- posed New Charter Issued on Eve of Voting

Declares Mayor Wants to Be the Whole Show

On the eve of the election length statements were given out for publication by Mayor James G. Woodward who is fighting the charter, and Archibald H. Davis, secretary of a citizens

The mayor attacks the charter from several angles, and pays his respects to the "fiancé" which he says is trying to fasten a tricky document on the people in order that they may gain an absolute control of the city's affairs.

Two features of the new charter are to be voted upon separately. One is the section reducing the power of the city council. If a majority of the voters disapprove this section, it will be stricken from the new charter and the recorder's power will remain the same as now is. The other section to be vot-

Mayer Woodward's statement followed To the People of Atlanta:

I have appeared in public print three or four occasions protesting the favorable action of the people of this city on the proposed charter that has gotten up in a back room caucus, without knowledge to the people of who was going on or who composed the public official, trying to warn the people against something that I am satisfied is detrimental to their interests and to the city at large."

There has been no money expended furthering my work in this direction," he said. "I have written up this proposed charter on the city of Atlanta are expending, it appears, over $100,000. Where does all this money come from and for what reason it being expended, the people will have to answer to themselves. It is evident that there is some one behind this, though, that the protection of the charter and who are expending so much money must expect to reap some benefit from it." He said that it was full in passing it in the election tomorrow. It is a question that affects all the people of the city and they must be as earnest in the expenditure as much money.

That this legislature has passed it. That it carries no weight with it, as if it were a local measure having to get the assent of the people. Therefore, it has passed upon by the people. The legislature just merely made it operate as if the people of Atlanta at the ballot box desired it to become the real charter of the city. Therefore, that act is entitled to be called

FAKES AND PITFALLS.

There are so many fakes and pitfalls in the proposed new charter that it is hard to enumerate them in anything like an article that the people could read to realize. Suffice it to say that the change in it from the present charter is vicious. The idea that it simplifies matters only tends to relieve the peo-hands of a political ring for their benefits. It complicates and further moves every important department of the city government from the control of the people. The mere fact that advocates of that charter have reduced the number of boards can only add

SAVANNAH MEAT DEALERS WILL FACE INDICTMENT

Pure Food Laws Found Violated by Inspectors on Recent Trip to Savannah

Three cases against Savannah meat dealers, alleging gross violation of the pure food laws of the state, were taken by State Agricultural Commissioner J. D. Price and Attorney General J. B. Fisher in the former's office on Tuesday morning. As a result of the trip last week to Savannah, the three alleged culprits will be presented to the grand jury of Chatham county by Commissioner Price for indictment and trial.

Chief Savannah cases are yet to be taken by State Pure Food Inspectors J. A. Melvin and State Veterinarian P. E. Johnson as the result of their trip last week to Savannah. Conditions were noted that were said to demand relief in the interest of the public health.

Inspector Melvin returned to Atlanta with one head in a severe case, and Tuesday morning he was taken to the hospital to attend it. A slight scratch on one of his fingers had become infected rather badly, somewhat during the trip through the meat markets of Savannah. The supervisor stated that he might have considerable trouble with it.

"The people are expected to eat meat and it is served to them from each counter as soon as a man's blood when he is among them," asserted Dr. Johnson.

The names of the three meat purveyors, whose case department is known as follows: Frank D. Allen, who operates a meat market and slaughter house; R. A. Allen, another slaughter house; and William H. Allen, who operates a meat market and slaughter house, appeared as counsel for the slaughter house operators.

Inspected reports upon all of the 122 inspections made by Messrs. Johnson and Melvin during the four days they spent in Savannah are now being prepared, as well as a general summary upon the whole state of affairs there. The summary will be given out for publication by Commissioner Price.

The action of the state department as an indictment of its entire pure food campaign throughout Georgia, and following a further inspection made of Savannah's meat houses last July. Alleged violations were reported to the department for inspection to take no measures against the offenders, with warning the violators and instructing them upon what the law required.

Considerable improvement was noted by the inspectors on this last trip, says Commissioner Price. "At some of the offenders had done nothing whatever to better conditions. It is estimated that 90 per cent of the meat houses in Savannah are clean and sanitary conditions, about 40 per cent are poor, and the remaining 10 per cent are in a state of decay."

During their inspection the state inspectors looked through the city, and outside the city market, twenty-three within the market, five slaughter houses in the city, one outside the city, and six old storage and packing houses within the city. Improvements noted in the city had been noted in three of the slaughter houses. Most of the meat found in the city was found in the city.

"I am among the very worst, who found me the majority of the worst markets in the city," answered Dr. Johnson, Tuesday.

That the cases against the three offenders heard Tuesday are brought up in the Savannah courts this state department will be represented there for the prosecution by inspectors Melvin and Johnson and by all the evidence that the department can gather.

WRIGHT ISSUES WARNING ON CERTAIN UNDERWRITERS
"Warning was issued by Controller George Wright Tuesday that the State City Underwriters' Association, represented by Charles T. List & Co., are attempting to do business in Georgia without license and in violation of law. They are insuring all homes in said. Their activity was called to his attention by an inquiry from H. H. "Chub" Franklin, a former legislator of Tennessee.

The public would do well at all times to be careful about taking out insurance until they satisfy themselves as to the financial responsibility of the insuring concerns," said the controller.

SULZER TURNS LOOSE OFFICE DURING TRIAL

His Attorneys Trying to Rule Out Campaign Funds Stories

(By Associated Press.)
ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 22.—H. Cady Herick, counsel for Governor Sulzer, announced at the instant today's session of the high court of impeachment that the governor would cause henceforth to exercise the functions of the executive office until the termination of his trial.

Further attempts were made today by counsel for Mr. Sulzer to prevent the story of the governor's alleged misuse of campaign contributions and with the aid of the witness stand.

Defended yesterday by a vote of 51 to 1 on their motion for dismissal of the impeachment on the ground of its unconstitutionality, the governor's counsel today offered a motion to strike out the three articles of the impeachment charging him with filing a false statement of campaign contributions and with the use of funds for speculation in stock.

The motion was prepared by D. Cady Herick, who argued that the alleged offenses were not impeachable on the ground that they were committed before the governor was sworn into office. Former Senator Edgar T. Brackett was appointed to reply in behalf of the assembly.

The brief held in substance that the acts of a candidate for political office during the campaign and after he has become an officer-elect are so intimately connected with the actual holding of the office as to be inseparable.

It was believed today that the decision of the court on this question, whether affirmative or negative, would make possible the beginning of the actual trial of the case tomorrow, unless some unforeseen emergency arises.

TARIFF BILL WILL GO TO MR. WILSON SATURDAY

Such Is Prediction of Chairman Simmons-Cotton Future Text

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—That the tariff bill will be in the hands of President Wilson for signature by Saturday night was the prediction today of Senator Simmons. The conference committee made such progress that all members were optimistic.

No concerted fight against the conference report that will delay its final approval is expected in either house. While Senator Pomeroy made a strong protest against the conference action in dropping out the 510 tax on fruit bundles used to fortify wheat, Democratic leaders do not expect his fight against the conference report to be the extent of delaying or defeating its adoption.

The Clarke cotton future tax will be taken up tomorrow. While a general plan has been under consideration among southern senators and representatives for modification of the Clarke amendment, Senator Simmons today said there had been no agreement on a compromise. The conference would take up the cotton future tax without any understanding as to a substitute provision, he said.

CURRENCY BILL TO BE DISCUSSED AT LENGTH

Samuel Untermyer Continues to Give Committee Ideas on Money Reform

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Complete revision of the currency bill was proposed by Senator Undermyer today during the examination of the bill by the committee on finance. The senator today vigorously assailed certain provisions of the bill, which he called the "Hatch bill," which would eliminate the present system of the entire reserve of the national bank and substitute a government issue of currency to individual banks on commercial paper backed by a 50 per cent cash reserve up to 75 per cent of the capital stock of each individual bank. "That would be in accordance to the present law," he said. "It is a long speech, but I shall not make it. I shall make it as short as possible." Mr. Untermyer opposed the Hatch bill as not offering enough security to the government for the issue of currency. The committee was unable to complete the question of Mr. Untermyer today and he will return Monday.

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, Sept. 21.—Prince Joseph, Romanov, who died yesterday at Breslau, did not contract any marriage by alliance with Mrs. F. H. Parkhurst, or her daughter, Miss Marie, formerly Miss Marie, daughter of the late General Parkhurst, ex-commander of the imperial guard.

of the department. Because of these changes in policy it was thought that the appointment of new attorneys would be made at once. It was believed that the attorney general would prefer all appointments of officials to be made before he changed the working plan of the department.

Because of this fact it has seemed possible that Mr. Alexander would be appointed to succeed Mr. Tate by October 1. But no definite announcement to the effect has been made.

Mr. Alexander has received no information from Washington, and has made no inquiries. After his appointment his assistants will be appointed by the department upon his recommendation.

END OF CANAL WORK MEANS GAMBLING AGAIN

Prohibition Against Games of Chance Off When Panama Canal Is Completed

(By Associated Press.)
PANAMA, Sept. 22.—A persistent rumor is in circulation here that gambling again will be permitted in the city of Panama when the canal is completed. When games of chance were suppressed in these cities by the Panama government authorities a year or more ago it was tacitly agreed that the prohibition should remain in effect until the completion of the canal.

MERCHANT LURED TO HOTEL AND KILLED

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 22.—The body of Joseph Schinsky, a merchant, was found late last night in a room at a local hotel, which had been occupied by a young man who had registered as "W. H. Anderson, Louisville, Ky." A strong odor had been told him through the head.

Anderson called at Schinsky's store yesterday and asked him to go to his room in the hotel, where he said he had some goods to show the merchant. The traveler left two notes, in which he said he had started to rob the merchant and then kill him.

INTERNATIONAL FEATURE OF TARIFF DISCUSSED

Chairman Simmons Thinks No Foreign Nations Will Undertake Reprisals

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—International aspects of tariff revision drew the attention of the committee on tariff bills when further consideration was given to the plan to implement the tariff bill with a special congressional resolution assuring foreign nations that existing trade relations will be continued for four months while President Wilson and Secretary Bryan undertake to negotiate new trade treaties.

Chairman Simmons, of the joint tariff committee, is confident that foreign powers will not undertake any tariff reprisals against the United States.

COLORADO COAL MINERS GO OUT ON BIG STRIKE

Thousands Have Quit Work to Get Union Officially Recognized

(By Associated Press.)
TRINIDAD, Colo., Sept. 22.—Several thousand miners in the southern coal fields, of district 14, Colorado, United Mine Workers of America, today went upon a strike which has for its chief purpose the recognition of the union.

Labor leaders declared a great majority of the men now working the coal mines would obey the strike call, while operators are unanimous in declaring that enough workers will leave their employment to seriously cripple mine operations.

The operators take a positive stand that there will be no compromise with miners on the demand of union recognition. The strike demands of the miners for their check weights, privilege to hire and trade where they please and employ such physicians as they please, are from operators or from miners. Reports from various mining camps in the district indicate the walkout will be general.

And you are invited to meet them in their gorgeous array. There are friends you have known of old and there are those you will know better as the season advances and you discover their charms and attractions. Many countries have contributed to this display. The sturdy mixture weaves of Scotland are here. The fine Irish suitings are here. The cloths and worsteds of England are here. The cloths and novelties of France are here. The German and Austrian novelties and pile fabrics are here. And our own American fabrics are here. Wherever better quality or choicer style was to be had, we drew therefrom, that the women of Atlanta might find in the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. stocks of fall woolens those weaves that truly represent the fashions of fall.

These are some of them.

Such Hats as Women Exclaim Over

One is pretty, another is chic, another demure, another is striking, another is gorgeous and glorious—all are novel and all bring forth exclamations of delight.

Fact is, the hats we are showing are representative of the best work of the millinery artists of the world.

There is that verve, that something we call style, about them that sets them apart, that distinguishes them from the ordinary.

Small wonder they are meeting with such success!

Tracing causes, the whys of their superiority, and we arrive at Estelle Mershon, of 20 East 46 Street, New York, which, though separated by an ocean, is very, very close to Paris, when anything new is flashed from the world's fashion center.

Just arrived from Estelle Mershon is a number of smart purple, prune and black hats. Notable among them is a copy of an Evelyn Varou triumph. A purple velvet hat of medium size, round crown, side curled brim with quills piercing the brim and extending forward!

Paris-Copied Suits Are In

In suits, the world goes to Paris for fashions. Rich's and Atlanta—receive these fashions through the suit makers of New York. Early in the season, New York manufacturers import the Paris suits. Some styles take; others don't. By September 15th, however, the New York

For these reasons our suit buyer sped to New York September 15. He is there now. His selections are arriving daily. From the big shipment now being unpacked in the preparations will at once be begun by Manager Mack to tune up his team for the world's series next month. The first move towards this end will be the easing up on the Athletic's players, all of whom will be given holidays from time to time. Several of the players are suffering with bruises or other injuries and they will be given plenty of opportunity to get over their ills before starting the hard work of training.

Manager Mack said last night he would at once start to put in substitutes. "I will give some of the veterans a holiday," said Mr. Mack. "By the time we reach Washington for a series which will start next Monday I may have an entire team of substitutes. This will depend upon whether I think the regulars will be benefited or otherwise by a layoff at that time. The hard work of preparing for the world's series will be done in this city in the final series with New York.

WATHTOWNS MANAGER.
The present manager of the water works, elected by the people under the general charter. The public come in daily contact with the business of that office and they have expressed it in the ballot box that they desire to have something to do with the men who shall transact their business with. The provisions of the proposed charter places that officer under a board and entirely removes him from the people. The chief of the water works is an important business in the city, it is placed under a board, that board to be elected by council, and the people have an opportunity to vote for council, a vote for council is a vote for the water works. It is a vote to judge for himself as to who shall officiate.
